Comments	Hanwell is a beautiful village with a unique identity. It is home to a community who value village way of life, it is home to some valuable agricultural land that shapes the fabric of the seasons in Hanwell. Our seasons are marked by our Church and our community hall where the village committee work very hard to support all who live in the village to connect with our village Identity and way of life. I feel strongly that extra housing is going to destroy this way of life. It's not about being unwelcoming because Hanfest is popular and welcomes people for miles around it's about being aware that we're we to be part of Banbury our village Identity will be lost along with our vital farmland, also home to wildlife that calls Hanwell home. The roads are under strain already, they are in disrepair from the heavy traffic that uses Hanwell as a way to avoid the gridlock in town that contributes to the worst pollution in the South East. I fear Hanwell would merge into the gridlock with even more traffic from a new development and Gullicote lane is just that an old and pretty village path. Strain on public services is not limited to roads, GPS and Dentists are under huge presence and I know that the Park Lane housing is unsuitable for anyone with school children and no transport. The village would not cope with a large additional demand for school runs , a casual drive through the village and perhaps a desire to sit and observe the traffic would be difficult because there is no where to park! As a disabled person I am fearful that adding more households will make the village even more unsafe to cross the road and I am not alone on this concern. Please do not destroy Hanwell by crushing it with new developments, without the space or clean air to breathe and the utilities provision to create a healthy place to live. Cherwell must protect its environment and green spaces for the health of all of its residents please!
