Comments	<input type="text" value="I object to all developments that expand towards the historic rural village of Hanwell and so threaten its rural identity. Over the past 2 decades there has been the relentless expansion of Banbury to the north, bringing congestion and strain on the local infrastructure. This must stop.

Furthermore, I object to the building on all rural land that could be used for crops or rewilding. The UK suffers from food scarcity. The UK has a falling birth rate, and one day a surplus of housing will exist. It makes far more sense to regenerate and build within Banbury itself, thereby restoring this historic town."/>
