Comments	<input access,="" can="" have="" it""="" so="" type="text" use="" value="Access to the proposed development is via existing roads through the Bloxham Vale development. These roads are already overcrowded with parked cars and vans and will impede the developer's access and make residents lives a misery with the increased traffic volume during and after construction. These access roads were never intended to support any additional traffic and can barely cope with the, yet to be completed, existing development. This will also bring prolonged misery, danger and noise pollution to the long suffering residents along any proposed access route. Bloxham Vale has also been provided with green space and recreational areas for the use of its residents {which is maintained partly by our service charge}. These facilities will also naturally be used by those living in the new development as the natural assumption will be that " we=""/>
