Comments	<input type="text" value="The existing infrastructure on the Redrow estate is not sufficient as it is. Tyrell Road is not wide enough to support any additional traffic. I live near the play park and it's already dangerous with the park being in such close proximity to the road. The roundabout to Bloxham Vale isn't big enough, and as far as I can see, there are no shops, pubs or schools planned on the development on the other side of the road. The drainage in Bloxham Vale is poor, and further development will only put more of a strain on this, and the overflow field area. This is a ridiculous idea."/>
