Comments	This development is in direct contravention of the Cherwell Local Plan, which purports to protect the local environment. This egregious and totally unwarranted application flies in the face of that. Villages such as Hanwell and Drayton are all but suburbs of Banbury - these residents did not buy houses in a rural village to find themselves in the middle of a housing estate. The local infrastructure is wholly not suited to support these additional houses - this is before the building work is completed at the top of Drayton Golf Course. Where are the new schools, doctors, community facilities? None of this whilst destroying important local countryside much used and loved by locals, as well as adding to light, noise and vehicle pollution. Why does the council not look to at investing in the town centre and working with landlords to turn empty buildings and above shops into residential properties? This would not only improve the town centre but breathe life back into it and a much needed income boost. This development is neither wanted or needed.
