Comments	<input type="text" value="Cropredy is by its very nature an ancient and beautiful village that is balanced with its amenities and infrastructure. To increase the number of dwellings on this scale will cause immeasurable harm to its character. The roads are not suitable for such an increase in traffic, plus this will badly affect Great Bourton's narrow village roads, which provides about half of the traffic routed to Cropredy. There are better areas to add this number of homes that would not have such a crushing affect on two beautiful villages. Yours sincerely Keith Orton, Great Bourton"/>
