Comments	<input type="text" value="Cropredy Is a beautiful village as it is , more, houses , more cars, on roads that are not built for so much traffic, the surgery is running to capacity.I feel this development would spoil the feel of a quaint village.
I have been to Cropredy festival every year from 1982, the villagers have enough to contend with , with such a huge number of people descending on the village. If the majority of the villagers object to this plan then I really hope the council will listen to them and do what is right, and not simply ride over these objections. Councillors and politicians have lost peoples trust, please help restore it and listen to the village.
Kind regards
Pauline Brown"/>
