> I object to the proposed planning application on the grounds that the whole idea and principle is ill-conceived from start to finish.

>

> 1.00 The demographic of football fan support is in the east of the city not the north.

> 2.00 The visiting fans will not use the trains as suggested as the costs will be prohibitive.

> 3.00 They have generally little respect or regard for their surroundings or the environment they are in when attending matches

> 4.00 Parking provisions are woefully inadequate, the side roads, slip roads will become totally blocked by both visiting and home supporters.

> 5.00 The closure of roads in an already densely congested travel location is wholly unacceptable and will impact everyone within a 10 mile radius of the stadium.

> 6.00 The whole area within a 4 mile radius will become a no-go area with huge impacts on businesses and residence.

> 7.00 It brings no benefits to the local community except loss, deterioration, and mayhem without any potential advantages.

> I fail to see how tis proposal was ever conceived, and got past the first stages of the application.

>

> I probably won't be around long enough to suffer the catastrophic effects of this ludicrous action, but I know Cherwell Council and Kidlington will live to regret it
