I have supported the Club for most of my life, though much of it from a distance due to relocation. Which was not of my volition. It seems to me that the application has a lot of merit in terms of what it wants to do for the community around it, and it is also important that Oxfordshire's leading football club has full access to the new stadium at all times, and doesn't have the " very="" when="" which="" will="" women's="" years,=""/>
