Comments	My objection to this proposal is that the last bit of green belt between Kidlington and Oxford is going to go. There will be enormous traffic congestion on match days; with road closures, plus car parking all over Kidlington when the official site is full. Oxfordshire road planning committee has made car travel to and within Oxford a nightmare as it is. This proposal will be a disaster as well for cars and the bus services to Oxford. Finally, there is no need for the stadium to be built in Kidlington, as OFC, apparently, have the option of remaining at the
