With all the new housing coming, you would think that a new football stadium would not make much difference to the horrible amount of ugly development that is about to overwhelm us in Kidlington- but I feel it will. Yet more countryside lost, yet more traffic on the roads, yet more concrete and steel to be improperly maintained over the years and yet more promises to local residents unfulfilled while anonymous owners and shareholders take the money and ignore the local populace, whether they are for or against it. Vague language in the proposals leaves plenty of room for future excuses when things don't materialise or go wrong. I'm not anti football, just anti shoddy and faceless development that cares nothing for nature and the environment.
