I am a life long supporter of Oxford United. I went through all the collective grief and heartache of the Maxwell years, the sale of the Manor, the collapse of the new build company, the "rescue" by Kassam with all that has entailed. My son attended with my wife and I from 2009 until he sadly passed away last April, from cancer. We are season tickets holders since 2010, despite now living in Dorset. The collective passion, involvement and emotion involved with the club is life changing. The club were hugely supportive of us during Steve's long illness (8 years) and we are immensely grateful. The club took 35,000 supporters to Wembley in 2010, who all deserve that support being repaid in a small way by allowing this fabulous new stadium to enhance Oxfordshire, and ensure the continued economic benefits to Oxford. Thank you
