Comments	An appalling intrusion into Kidlington. The extra traffic and vast numbers of "fans" descending on the place will be horrible for anyone living there. Parking will be unbearable for residents. This extra traffic must inevitably occur on more than just match days, one can be certain that the greed of the developers will require the buildings to be used to the absolute limit. Thus people, and their cars will be an ever present menace. Furthermore, the small area of woodland, which has existed along with the rare wildlife which inhabits it will be destroyed. The types of wildlife will not survive the onslaught . Pure greed will have ruined the lives of Kidlington residents and the few remaining creatures in the woodland.
