| Comments             | This would be a very important for the City.  |  |
|                      | On a personal note, currently it takes me two buses and about 2 hours to get to Grenoble road. Should this be built I'd get the bus to some point in Kidlington and walk the remainder of the journey. This would take a maximum of 30 minutes to reach the proposed site.  |  |
|                      | The plans produced answer all questions posed and should be given the green light.  |  |
