Dear sirs,

In Oxford City last night Oxford United celebrated their Wembley win.

The roads from the Plain to St Slates were closed for the parade.

According to the Oxford Mail photos and report, it was clear that fans were still walking in the roads at 8.40 pm. Over Three hours of traffic disruption.

My point being, a stadium of 16,000 will cause fans to close the Oxford road for hours as they all spill out after a match blocking the roads.

Fans queued Saturday going to Wembley for One and a half hours to catch a train at the Parkway.

The railway and park and ride car parks were full.

Thousands of Home and away supporters leaving the Parkway will create chaos at the station.

There were no police in Kidlington last night when drunken OUFC supporters were fighting on the Oxford road after 10 pm. MORE ANTI SOCIAL behaviour.

I put forward my concerns as I object to the plans.

Yours faithfully
