Comments	 As an Oxford city resident, it seems to me that: 1 Our city is already facing the loss of huge areas of surrounding green belt land for housing, and the proposed loss of nature and of local 1 amenity is disproportionate - especially when other factors are taken into account e.g. poor quality air from traffic especially when that traffic is likely to be at a standstill on the Banbury Road going North. 2 The site is adjacent to valuable nature reserves and land of ecological value that will be irreparably damaged 3 The nuisance caused for Kidlington residents - noise, congestion and antisocial behaviour - is likely to affect Oxford city residents as well.
