Comments	I'll make this short. My main objections are (a) I don't believe for a second that the majority of fans from all over the areawould arrive by public transport as promised in a slower and more expensive journey if they have a car outside, but the parking provided is inadequate so they will overflow round the village. (b) The idea of closing the Oxford Rd before and after matches is ridiculous - this is a major route in and out of Oxford. A great many people will be inconvenienced, including non-locals who will not be aware of the problem. (b) The idea of closing the Oxford Rd before and af
