Comments	The approach to Banbury is totally unrecognisable because so many house have been built into the outskirts of the town. We are meant to be taking care of our planet not filling it with more concrete, waste, landfillthe list is endless. There are many sightings of deer and birds of prey on and surrounding this site. We have already taken away so much of their countryside space and should not be taking anymore. The roads around here are often at standstill due to all the extra traffic from recent housing additions and motorway traffic. This site is also prone to flooding so totally unsuitable. Gps and dentists are also struggling to meet demand and the local hospital is little more than a cottage hospital due to having been down graded over recent years. Greedy housing developers strike again!
