Comments	<input type="text" value="Dear sir/Madam
I am a resident on Bloxham vale and am very concerned about the new proposal of a further 65 homes being built. I was not aware of this when I purchased my home. Tyrell road is already congested with traffic and parked cars. This is also used as a race track for younger drivers. To add another 65 homes worth of traffic would be a death trap. Redrow sold Bloxham vale as a peaceful family environment. The green area where the new estate is proposed is popular with walkers and the highland cows are a lovely countryside addition. I am objecting to this proposal as it would become a very noisy, congested and highly populated area creating a heavy flow of consent traffic through what was sold as a tranquil area. There is a play park situated on Tyrell road with young children playing, they will be put at high risk with an increase of traffic. There are no yellow lines for restricting parking currently and so to add to this plus moving traffic is highly irresponsible. This will encourage residents to move away from this area.
I highly object to this proposal."/>
