

This is a view facing south. The proposed western double gate/fence will run along a north-south line just to the right of the three chairs in the picture, and the southern most gatepost will be installed on the right edge of the existing fence which is attached to the stone wall on the right of the picture.

This is a view facing north. The western double gate/fence will run north/south on a line just to the left of the chairs shown in the picture. The northern gate will be installed behind the furthest chair shown in the photograph.

This is a view facing north. The northern gate will be installed behind the chair and the herb box. It will be attached to Willow Cottage on the right of the picture.

This is a view facing north. The northern gate will be installed behind the chair and the herb box. It will be attached to Willow Cottage on the right of the picture.

This is a view of the garden in Brookside, showing an abandoned and rusting Morris Minor, canoes and oil drums.

This is another view of the garden in Brookside showing abandoned furniture, wood, a trailer and woodworking equipment.