Personal representation to the Planning Inspector by Mr. A. Haynes re
APP/C3105/W/15/3136680

I have read the BBSG representation and totally agree with the content of it.
My wife Eileen and I started off the BBSG after taking advice from Cherwell District Council in 2006, I would confirm to you that the co ordination of the BBSG passed to Mr R. Butt after the sudden death of my wife .
The BBSG has gone from strength to strength with many local families and those that have moved away to foreign countries joining the effort to try and save our local pub from being developed into un needed housing.
The current appeal to try and remove the conditions attached to the holiday flat should remain where they are, They were put there by a very wise Planning Inspector and should not be removed under any circumstances.
A domestic dwelling so close to what will eventually be a busy public house will cause friction between the two parties living in the individual properties and also deprive the Pub of rental income.
Please dismiss this appeal.
Yours sincerely
Tony Haynes
