

It is totally illogical to build houses for the elderly in the furthest part of the village from the GP surgery. Furthermore it is down and up a steep hill and makes absolutely no sense.

Professor John Wass