YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

I am horrified that after such a unanimous refusal by Cherwell District Council to their original application, Vistry are yet again trying to build on farmland which comes right up to village of Hanwell. This development would be a nasty excrescence on a natural tree-lined boundary of north-west Banbury. Vistry are using big bully-boy tactics to try and walk over a historic and united village thus ruining good farmland and spoiling the natural beauty of the English countryside. I have attached my previous objection in which all of the points are still valid.
