Comments	<input type="text" value="The never ending building on this site is ruining the aviation importance and history associated with it. Pretty soon there will be no aviation at all from the site and no doubt then the airfield will be built on further. The latest revelation that the Gliding clubs lease has been cancelled shows that Bicester Heritage have no real concern for aviation on the site. They are paying lip service to planning and eroding the whole site."/>
