Comments	Adderbury desperately needs a sports and community hall as soon as possible. We are a very sociable village and there is a real strong sense of community, with many choosing to raise a family here. From scouts and brownies to Morris dancing and folk groups, Adderbury has plenty going on and I am sure would make full use of this proposed facility, in addition to hiring the space for sporting and social events. The provision of a sports and community hall would be used by a many number of clubs and societies, increasing opportunities for sport and leisure, encouraging people to get out and get involved in something active, one of the important 5 Ways to Wellbeing (Public Health initiative) to promote positive physical and mental health and wellbeing. Furthermore, Adderbury is the perfect place to host Morris dancing events and practices. Our male and female sides are greatly increasing in number and soon current facilities will not be able to provide capacity. The use of a larger community space would be indeed most welcome to these groups of people who can continue the traditions Adderbury is famous for. I really don't understand why some residents are opposing the proposed development, as it can only serve to enhance our community. There has been significant housing development in the area, therefore a facility which can accommodate and serve this growing community is essential, at the earliest opportunity. It would indeed be a worthy investment. Furthermore, there have already been 2 referendums and a parish poll, and the village has spoken three times in favour of this development. There is literally a very small minority who are against the proposed development, whose aim, it would seem, is to ruin opportunities for the majority to connect, get active and support each other. In light of the recent Coronavirus pandemic, when it is safe to return to normal life again, society will have understandably changed and the village will need something like the community hall to bring people back together. Please please let this project go ahead, I urge you. Thank you for reading this comment.
