Comments	I support this application due to the footfall using the shop has slowly diminished over the past months. Especially with the Co Op opening in Bletchington. The owners have been very loyal to the village , but as a business they need to make a profit and a living. At present this is not the case , and and they must do what is best for them . The shop will be greatly missed by young & old. As a village, one must prepare for a small reduction in local house prices due to such action. This is normally the outcome when a small village like Kirtlington loses such an asset' I wish the proprietors and their family best wishes for the future.
