

Footpath between an avenue of trees with architectural hedges creating a link between buildings

Cafe break-out space with timber planter edge seating and cafe tables under the shade of trees

Green wall of climbing plants supported on a stainless steel wire trellis

Enclosed courtyard garden on the podium deck with raised planting beds and multi-stemmed trees

A line of compact trees defining a pedestrian route with a bed of flowering and foliage plants and clipped hedges against the building facade.

Existing boundary hedgerow reinforced with native woodland trees with a scalloped woodland edge of native shrubs and an undulating margin of wild woodland flowers.

Vendee Drive avenue created with large formal trees mirroring those on the site opposite

Mounded lawns with groups of multi-stemmed birch trees underplanted with winter flowering plants

Line of trees against the building with a green wall of climbing plants supported on a stainless steel wire trellis

Bird and Insect Habitat incorporated in the new woodland margins

Large trees underplanted with formal hedges to visually turn the corner into the site

Beds of herbaceous plants and ornamental grasses

Sinuuous rolled gravel path with occasional seats

—Areas of wildflower meadow

Major parkland tree species — with space to attain full maturity i.e. Weeping Silver Lime

Paved piazza with stone benches and pebble seats under the canopies of large trees illuminated at night with uplighters

REVISIONS
Rev A: 16/12/19 Green walls of climbing plants supported with stainless steel wire trellis indicated on MSCP and north facade of resi block.