

Wall patch method statement

The walls will be made good using a gipson plaster which is currently used on the inside wall. Any brick wall section without plaster will be left unplastered. The plaster would be painted with high quality breathable emulsion paint. The images below show the conditions of the walls.

