Comments:

I am a user of the bus service and it is very dangerous, there is no proper place to stand, and you end up standing right on the verge/mud. With cars going 70mph which should be going 50. I remember using this bus service when I was 14/15 due to secondary school, and it was terrifying. It's bad enough having to cross that road and run onto the verge on the other side, let alone not even having a safe space to wait in the mean time. Especially in the winter, you end up twisting your angles and slipping as the mud isn't even a flat surface.
