Dear Ms Owens,

These developers are persistent. I have written to Council before with comments opposing plans for building on the Gavray Meadows site.

This site, which I occasionally visit, is one of historical and scientific interest thus a place of educational importance for the people of Bicester. Over recent years the town has rapidly grown and more large housing estates are under development. Open areas like this in any town are so necessary for the well-being of residents.

I am aware of the submissions by "Save Gavray Meadows" and "Bicester Local History Society" (of which I am a member) and support the views expressed by them to OPPOSE this development.

Yours sincerely,
Ian Brown
