

Proposed West Elevation

Mirror Image of Existing West Elevation

The existing West Elevation of Orchard house has a gable end, the architects plans now show roof tiles on this gable end, and it seems the proposed building is considerably taller than the existing roof's ridge. I have placed a mirror image of the existing west elevation next to the proposed west elevation to highlight this point. This increase in building height would be unnecessary and reduce existing views.