Comments	<input type="text" value="I object to the erection of an agricultural barn at the Pheasant Pluckers Public House, Burdrop, apart from the fact it would be an eyesore in the middle of the villages, is there a need for a public house to have an agricultural building? The owners have already devastated the landscape in the dip between Burdrop and Sibford Ferris, this now appears to be tiers of land which we understand may be a vineyard and campsite. The access in this dip would be a dangerous entrance for traffic coming and going out of the site. Surely a public house only needs a storage shed for goods consumed in a pub, not an agricultural building. The owners have, since they moved in, tried very hard to make themselves unpopular and unwelcoming, hence nobody locally uses the pub."/>
