Comments	<input type="text" value="It's tough for small businesses to swim above water at the moment through this pandemic. All small and local businesses need our support for whatever they provide. Each individual local business help support the local community, providing food services and entertainment. Blazing Saddles just does that. It's a run by people who are passionate about their business and providing a warm welcome environment for all not just bikers. Their spirit and determination is a sign for us to follow to get through this pandemic. The service they provide is professional and uplifting, a absolute must for our mental wellbeing in these uncertain times. I pledge my sincere support for their services that they want to extend and provide. Their business helps and supports so many people and gives us something to look forward to and a great place to meet new people and share our life experiences. Good luck and hope your proposal is granted. Much love, Ash."/>
