Comments	<input type="text" value="The opening of Blaze Inn Saddles was a God-send to the area. Never before has there been anything in the surrounding area to pull groups together in this way. A top compliment to the management has to be (as one example) that the venue is especially well attended and supported by at least one significant branch of The Institute of Advanced Motorists (a division that teaches local motorcycle enthusiasts to advance their skills). The end result of that of course is that local including new riders, become more safe around our roads. Their visits to the venue also means they are always (under normal circumstances) accompanied by other advanced motorcyclists."/>
