| Comments | <input type="text" value="Being a born again bike for the last three years, I think this is a great idea as so many pubs have closed down over the years. Pubs are part of our heritage and once there gone, never to return. Am sure the majority of bikers that will use the new facilities will be very thoughtful to local residents, as the times I have been everyone has been extremely sensible and well behaved. And the bottom line if people abuse it, then it will be closed down."/> |
