Comments	<input type="text" value="We object to this planning application for the following: - The small size of the proposed vineyard does not warrant the investment of installing a new barn. - The Sib Valley location is conservation area which should be preserved. - The existing entrance into the paddock has no visibility splay, it is at a point where the road is narrow and dangerous especially with large cars, buses and lorry's. Situated on a stretch of road at the national speed limit. - We also object to any camping, additional parking, portable toilet, future wash room provision etc weaved into the application this is not an appropriate site for this type of venture etc..."/>
