Comments	<input type="text" value="I wish to strongly object to the proposed barn, which is not only far too large for purpose but will also be an eyesore. The owners have now removed the majority of the old hedge line, without permission, fully exposing the paddock and newly planted vineyard. Therefore, the proposed position of the barn will be fully visible from the road and other areas of our beautiful village. This is a conservation area, the owners have completely destroyed the area without consideration for anyone. When are they going to be stopped?"/>
