Comments	<input type="text" value="I can only echo and fully support my father's objection to this terrible plan to extend the motocross events. As a 20 year old, I fully support the Government's plan to go electric for all new cars in 2040 (or even earlier) and to look to create a green society given the climate emergency the world is facing. I cannot believe that any council would be so short sighted as to support this proposal, which perpetuates petrol and noise pollution in a rural area. If you go ahead with this, future generations will judge you on your lack of foresight and greed."/>
