Comments	<input type="text" value="I live in Oxford and came to stay in Hornton for a weekend during the summer as an escape from the city. The area is so beautiful and rich in wildlife - I saw several rare species which I know have declined badly across the UK including lapwings and grey partridge. I can't believe they are genuinely considering an international motocross track here!! Right next to the Cotswolds as well. Seems absolutely crazy at the moment when the pandemic has taught us the importance of protecting our natural spaces. The local council should be ashamed of themselves if they let this pass."/>
