Comments	<input type="text" value="Nothing better sums up the difference in attitude between the people responsible for the unlawful Wroxton Motocross Track and the community nearby than these two photographs, taken today - Sunday, April 11. The country is in mourning over the death of a much-loved member of the Royal Family and the village of Hornton is playing its part. We have two flagpoles in the village and, on both of them, the Union Flag was being flown today at half mast in tribute to Prince Philip. It just doesn't seem appropriate to do anything else. Yet, half a mile away today, 150 vehicles turned up for a motocross practice day on the track, as though it was just a normal Sunday. And, of course, for the people organising yet another lucrative session at this unlawful facility it was: they did not, of course, tell the local community that they were going to hold this event - despite the promise of both Mr Pounder and Mrs Kerwood to keep people living nearby aware of when meetings would be held. Neither did they think appropriate to cancel this event under the circumstances."/>
