Comments	<input type="text" value="I work alternative weekends and if these events fall when I'm off, I will always have a disturbed weekend.
The annoying noise these motorbikes make, is like a bluebottle fly, continually flying around your head.
Also the event doesn't contain some people from practicing elsewhere.
While walking the dog, they have come past me on the bridle path adjacent to the old quarry, alongside the Stratford road!
If they plant evergreen trees, how long will it be, before they make any sort of barrier to the noise?"/>
