Dear Ms Magnuson

I notice that a number of emails to you about the way Cherwell's planners have been operating in relation to the Wroxton Motocross Track are not on the portal yet. I wrote one several days ago and specifically asked it to be there by the time today's planning meeting takes place. Others have done the same thing.

Am I to take it that you're as deaf to such these recent - perfectly reasonable - requests as your department has been over the past five years to complaints and legitimate opposition to unlawful and repeated breaches of planning law and the craven capitulation by you and your colleagues of those breaches?

And - yes - I'd like this email to go on the planning portal by 4pm today as well.

Yours sincerely

Roger Corke
