Alex,

I spoke to the applicant on these two cases this morning.

1. MX Track

I advised that a new case Officer will be appointed to review the status of the case and that that person may be in touch at the appropriate stage.

I did not mention bringing back to Committee as on reflection I wondered if this should be thought about when the review has been done? At this stage I'm not sure of the advantage of coming back to Committee at this stage.

2. Gin Distillery

The applicant says that there has been further correspondence with Planning after the withdrawal email 10 March. I could not get clear if this meant a new application had been submitted, I could not see one at address of the withdrawn one. The applicant says she will send the correspondence to me.
