Comments	<input type="text" value="Fernhill Estates have attached a YouGov Report on Report on Local Attitudes and Perception to Affordable Housing Provision, in support of Application 21/00922/OUT. I would ask the relevance of this document based on the Cherwell District population being 149,161 (2018) and a total of 137 respondents participated in the survey which equates to 0.09 of the population. It would be interesting to know if any of the residents in Great & Little Bourton had been sent the survey."/>
