Comments	<input type="text" value="Foxden Way is a beautiful narrow lane, connecting two villages. It is popular with dog walkers and anyone who enjoys the glorious countryside views it offers. We should preserve it that way for our children to enjoy in the future. Failing that will be the start of turning it into a residential road in the middle of a massive housing estate, which was once known to be the villages of Great Bourton, Little Bourton, Cropredy. Please do not allow centuries old villages to merge into one, losing their identity and cultural heritage. Protect the countryside."/>
