Bicester Heritage has morphed into Bicester Motion and heritage has gone out of the window. A historic RAF stations, which had one of the last omnidirectional grass airfields is going to get covered in race tracks. The two proposed take off/landing runs are token, just to tick a box, but will become obsolete once all the buildings around the perimeter are build and the tracks are in use. The aviation report has assessed the risk to pilots but at no point is there a risk assessment for track users and spectators and the obvious danger of having buildings so close to a runway . It is simply not safe for aircraft to take off with people and buildings so close by, with a bit of tall grass as a barrier! It is Bicester Motions goal to become one of the top 20 attractions in the UK. Even if they ended up at no 20, it would involve millions of visitors to the site. Buckingham Road and Skimmingdish Lane are simply not up to carrying that much traffic. And we, who are living on domestic housing estates around the perimeter will have to endure endless traffic, noise and pollution. Why bother with " village"="" way="" we="" when="" where="" working="" would=""/>
