Subject: Bicester airfield

Rebekah,

Sadly I cannot attend the planning today, but I have concerns about the airfield application.

The field is, I think, the largest pre war grass airfield in the country. Designed at a time when aircraft flew into wind for landing and takeoff.

The uniqueness of the field was known to Bicester heritage when they purchased it.

I am worried that The proposal looks to seriously compromise the airfield and the heritage of the site.

Best

Simon Holland.

I fear the prop
