Comments	<input type="text" value="I'd like to make a comment and suggestion at this early stage of the planning process. I would recommend that the applicants should include Swift nest bricks (incorporated within the structure of buildings) in their plans for the development. These nesting bricks are readily available in many designs. They are unobtrusive, inexpensive and easy to install. The development is likely to include many buildings which would be suitable and their inclusion would enhance the biodiversity of the development. In addition it would also be in line with the Council's own Guidance Document on 'Biodiversity in the Built Environment'. If requested I can be available to advise about designs and/or locations of boxes at the appropriate time. Regards Chris Mason Cherwell Swifts"/>
