Comments	<input type="text" value="I believe this is to be completely unnecessary. Banbury has plenty hotels, petrol stations and fast food restaurants all within 5 minutes of said location. The economy wouldn't need such a boost if you would stop signing off on building of new homes and actually plumb some more into the existing amenities. The hospital, for example. The M40 roundabout already suffers from severe congestion as does Hennef way. You should be looking for ways to relieve the current issues not create new ones."/>
