4a. Eligibility - The building proposed to be demolished

Was the building to be demolished constructed after 31 December 1989?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Does the footprint of the building to be demolished (the total area of ground covered by it) exceed 1000 square metres?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Does the height of the building to be demolished exceed 18 metres at any point (measured at the highest part of the roof excluding plant, masts or antennae)?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Has the building to be demolished been vacant for at least six months immediately prior to the submission of this application?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

If the building to be demolished has been rendered unsafe or otherwise uninhabitable by the action or inaction of any person having an interest in the land on which it stands, is it practicable to secure safety or health by works of repair or works for affording temporary support?

Note that in this context, keeping the building vacant does not of itself count as action or inaction.

Yes No / The building has not been rendered as such

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would demolition of the building be considered 'relevant demolition' under Section 196D of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)?

'Relevant demolition' means demolition of a building that is situated in a conservation area. There are some exceptions to this, but if the building is situated in a conservation area, you should contact your Local Authority to seek advice on the best course of action.

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4a. Eligibility - The building proposed to be demolished (continued)

Is any part of the land covered by or within the curtilage of the building to be demolished:

- article 2(3) land;
- a site of special scientific interest;
- a listed building or land within its curtilage;
- a scheduled monument or land within its curtilage;
- a safety hazard area;
- a military explosives storage area; or
- within 3 kilometres of the perimeter of an aerodrome

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4b. Eligibility - The proposed replacement building

Would any of the footprint of the proposed building (the total area of ground covered by it) exceed the footprint of the building to be demolished?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would any part of the exterior wall of the proposed building nearest to a highway be nearer to the highway than the part nearest the highway of the exterior wall nearest the highway of the building to be demolished?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would the height (above ground level) of the proposed building at any point (not including plant, radio masts and antennae) exceed:
- 7 metres above the height (not including plant, radio masts and antennae) of building to be demolished; or
- 18 metres

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would the proposed building have 3 or more storeys than the building to be demolished?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Where the proposed building will have more storeys than the building to be demolished, would the floor to ceiling height of any proposed additional storey, measured internally at any point, exceed:

- 3 metres; or
- the floor to ceiling height, measured internally, of any existing storey in the building to be demolished

Yes No / The replacement building will not have more storeys

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would any plant installed on the roof of the proposed building be greater in height than any installed plant on the roof of the building to be demolished (as measured from the lowest surface of the roof on the principal part of the building)?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Following the development, will every dwellinghouse in the building remain in use within Use Class C3 and for no other purpose, unless that purpose is ancillary to the primary use as a dwellinghouse?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4b. Eligibility - The proposed replacement building (continued)

Will all the proposed new dwellinghouses have gross internal floor areas of at least 37 square metres, and comply with the nationally described space standard?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

5. Agricultural Tenants

Is any part of the land covered by or within the curtilage of the building to be demolished occupied under any agricultural tenancy agreements?

Yes No

If yes, have all the parties to any agricultural tenancy agreements consented to the demolition?

Yes No

If occupied under any agricultural tenancy agreements and:

- all parties have consented to the demolition

You will need to include copies of the written confirmations from all relevant parties, stating their consent, when this application is submitted.

- not all parties have consented to the demolition

Your proposals will not be eligible for permitted development based on the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.
